

Photography unites “The Artful Lens” group show at Stutz Art Space in October

INDIANAPOLIS (Sept. 9, 2009) – Ten Stutz artists who use photography in the creation of their art will be featured in the October show at Stutz Art Space.

“The Artful Lens” will include silver photography, digital photography, photo transfers, historic processes, photo etchings and paintings. While some of the artists do not consider photography their primary medium, they share the view through the lens as an intimate part of their artistic process.

Participating artists are: Kathy Blankenheim, Peg Brand, Andy Chen, JanettMarie, Karen Land, Phil O’Malley, Adam Noel, Ginny Taylor Rosner, Martha Sando and Susan Semenick.

The opening reception for “The Artful Lens” is Friday, Oct. 2 from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. The exhibition will be open through Oct. 30. Stutz Art Space, a nonprofit visual art center, is on the first floor of the Stutz Business Center.

Many artists at the Stutz have open studios on the first Friday of every month from noon to 5 p.m., and Stutz Art Space is open then as well.
