

“Stutz Art Space Faculty and Student Invitational” opens May 1 Summer class scheduled announced

INDIANAPOLIS (April 8, 2008) – Students and faculty from Stutz Art Space will display work at the Stutz Art Space gallery in an exhibition titled “Class: Faculty/Student Show” opening May 1. Course instructors include Janet Chilton, Jane Knight, Diane Lyon, Susan Mauck, Jerry Points, John Reynolds and Ginny Taylor Rosner.

This is the first faculty/student show at the Stutz.

“We’re pleased with the response from local artists wanting to study with our talented artists,” said Kate Oberreich, director of education for Stutz Art Space.

Stutz Art Space is a nonprofit visual art center featuring a gallery and workshop, opened in January 2008. Its mission is to connect artists, audiences and resources. Summer classes begin in May and include oil painting, plein air painting, lighting for photography portraits and more.

New this session are week-long summer workshops for teens and a 3-day workshop where students will explore downtown with a sketchbook and produce a final artwork that’s a response to their surroundings. Class dates and prices vary. For more information and a schedule of classes is available on www.stutzartists.com.

An opening reception for the Invitational is set for 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. May 1, in conjunction with the Indianapolis Downtown Artists & Dealers Association’s (IDADA) monthly First Friday gallery tour. The show continues through May 29, and the gallery is open from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. weekdays or by appointment. It will be open during the Open House as well.
