

2009 Stutz Artists Open House Frequently Asked Questions

Where can I park?

In addition to on-street parking on Capitol Ave., Senate Avenue and 11th Street, several nearby lots are available for free parking during the Open House. Lots are under the highway overpass north of 11th Street between Illinois and Senate, and on the north and south corners of 10th and Capitol.

Is the building handicapped accessible?

Most areas of the building are quite accessible, with wide corridors and available elevators. The Stutz complex extends a full city block, so it can be challenging for those who walk with difficulty. And because Friday night draws large crowds, those with mobility issues might be able to better navigate the event on Saturday. Accessible restrooms are on the first floor and the second floor of the A building.

Where do I buy tickets?

- Tickets are $10 in advance and available at participating Old National Bank centers.
- Tickets are $12 at the gate.

Are children welcome?

Yes. Saturday's smaller crowds and more laid-back atmosphere make it a more welcoming environment for those attending with children. Children's prices are the same as adults on Friday night, but on Saturday children 16 and under are free with a paid adult.

Will there be entertainment?

Yes, Cynthia Lane will perform on the first floor both days, and other acoustic groups will perform throughout the building as well.

Will there be food on site or should people eat dinner beforehand?

Plenty of food is available. Locally owned restaurants – Zing, Zest, Jazz Kitchen, Judge's BBQ, Meridian, Creation Café and Euphoria – are selling meals at several sites throughout building. Also, Bearcats restaurant, which is on the first floor near Senate Avenue, is offering their regular menu. And many artists provide snacks and drinks in their studios.

What restaurants are nearby?

Creation Cafe and Euphoria are located at Buggs Temple at 337 West 11th Street, about a half block from the Stutz. Phone is 955-2389. Zing Restaurant is at 543 Indiana Avenue, on the corner of MLK, Jr. Boulevard and Indiana Avenue. Phone is 636-7775.

When you buy art, do you take it with you, or pick it up another time?

Many people choose to take smaller items with them at the time of purchase. However, most artists are happy to accommodate buyers by allowing them to pick up purchased work at the end of the event or at a later time. Many also will deliver pieces after the event or ship to out-of-town buyers.

Are credit cards accepted?

Mastercard and Visa are accepted for tickets, and most artists will take them for purchases.

Is there an ATM in the building?

No. The nearest ATM is located at the Chase Bank at 16th and Meridian streets.
